

Reconciling Process Resources

This is an initial list, there are many other resources that you may find helpful. Compiled by “Exploring Participation Reconciling Ministries Network” planning team.

Books

“Changing the Message: Cruelty to persons who are gay is incompatible with Christian teaching” by Julie Hilliard Wood. From a RMN blog post by the author: This book “seeks to educate, challenge us to recognize the misinterpretation of theology, and stop the harm while validating the beautiful masterpiece of God’s creation to include the diverse representation of sexual and gender identity.”

“God and the Gay Christians: The Biblical Case in Support of Same-Sex Relationships” by Matthew Vine, also has a presentation that can be found on YouTube. Book available from Cokesbury.

“One Coin Found: How God's Love Stretches to the Margins” by Emily Kegler. From the author’s website: “As a queer woman who grew up in both conservative Evangelical and progressive Protestant churches, she knows too well how Scripture can be used to wound and exclude. And yet, the stories of Scripture continue to captivate and inspire her—both as a person of faith and as a pastor to a congregation. So she set out to fall in love with the Bible, wrestling with the stories inside, where she met a God who continues to seek us out—appearing again and again as a voice, a presence, and a promise.”

“Our Family Outing: A Memoir of Coming Out and Coming Through” by Joe Cobb & Leigh Anne Taylor, the story of a family facing the reality that their husband/father is gay. The authors, Joe, a husband, pastor and father and Leigh Anne, a wife, church musician and mother tell their story of facing the truth about his sexuality and Leigh Anne’s finding her way to acceptance and forgiveness.

“Our Strangely Warmed Hearts. Coming Out Into God’s Call” by Bishop Rev. Dr. Karen Oliveto. History of LGBTQ persons in culture and the UMC, including ten testimonies from LGBTQ persons in the UMC.

“Rainbow Theology: Bridging Race, Sexuality, and Spirit” by Patrick S. Cheng. This book explores the theologies of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) people of color.

“Reclaiming Church” by JJ Warren. The author continues his call to reaffirm the Church be welcoming to all, including young people. In the final chapter, he focuses on practical and positive steps for joining voices, being heard, building bridges, and working together for young people to reclaim Church in their lives.

"Rediscipling the White Church: From Cheap Diversity to True Solidarity" by David Swanson. From the author's website "Pastor David Swanson contends that discipleship, not diversity, lies at the heart of our white churches' racial brokenness. Before white churches can pursue diversity, he argues, we must first take steps to address the faulty discipleship that has led to our segregation in the first place." Published May 2020.

"The ABC's of LGBT+" by Ashley Mardell, a guide for anyone who wants to learn how to talk about gender identity and sexual identity.

"Transforming: The Bible and the Lives of Transgender Christians" by Austen Hartke. A biblically based, educational, and affirming resource to shed light and wisdom on this modern gender landscape.

Movie/Video

"For the Bible Tells Me So" 2007 documentary that explores the intersection between religion and homosexuality in the U.S. and how the religious right has used its interpretation of the Bible to stigmatize the gay community.

"for they know not what they do" – a film by the director/producer of "For the Bible Tells Me So" that describes the campaign, launched by the right, following the Supreme Court case legalizing marriage equality. This campaign is working to limit rights of America's LGBTQ citizens across the country. This new film follows the stories of four families on their journey to understand and accept their queer and trans children. Film website:
